

Tennessee Walking Horse

Logan C

Origin

- The Tennessee Walking Horse was originally founded in the United States, and is a composition of Standardbred, Thoroughbred, Morgan, and American Saddlebred stock.

Appearance

- The colors of the Tennessee Walking Horse are, black, chestnut, bay, brown, roan, gray, yellow, and pure white.
- They also have Overo, Sabino, Tobiano, and Tovero coat patterns
- The Horse is 14,3 to 17 hands

provided by Stuart Vesty Photography

Interesting Facts

- Originally bred as a utility horse
- They live from 28-33 years old
- they cost $1,500 - $15,000

Important Information

- Founded in Middle Tennessee
- originally Bred as a utility horse
- There swift, smooth, Running walk is there most prominent trait

