

Pet Restraint Techniques & Pain Management Notesheet by C. Kohn

Name: _____ Block: _____ Date: _____

Directions: use the accompanying PowerPoint (<http://bit.ly/pet-restraint>) to complete the questions below. This sheet will be due upon the completion of the PowerPoint in class.

1. Basic restraint is vital _____ towards _____ hundreds of dog and cat conditions
2. In any situation they ensure that you can safely _____ your animal without causing _____
3. Signs of pain in dogs and cats can be pretty _____. Animals that didn't hide signs of injury were more likely to be _____.
4. Dogs tend to be more _____ and may _____, _____ a hurt paw, or _____. Cats more often simply _____.

5. List 5 other signs that an animal may be in pain:

6. What are three reasons why you should never give pain medication to a pet?

7. What are 4 pain relief treatments that can safely be used with pets?

8. What are the three purposes of humane restraint?

9. Why should muzzle be used even if the dog never bites? _____

10. What should be used instead of a muzzle for a short-nosed dog or for a cat?

Describe how to make this:

11. If you do not have a muzzle, what household item(s) can be used? _____

12. Describe how to properly apply a muzzle: _____

13. Each form of restraint works best for a specific type of _____. The selected technique should leave the _____ area _____ for treatment. If possible, have one person _____ the animal while another performs the _____.

14. It is best to place small pets on a _____ or _____ so that they are at waist level...this can prevent you from _____ too much _____ on an injured body part. Medium or large dogs are best treated on the _____ a long fall could worsen a serious injury.

15. Draw or describe the reclining restraint below:

16. Draw or describe the stretch restraint below:

17. Draw or describe the hugging restraint below:

18. Draw or describe the kneeling restraint below:

19. Describe two situations in which an Elizabethan collar might be necessary:

20. What two things must you measure to make an Elizabethan collar? _____
